ROGER HORROCKS AND SARAH ANN TAYLOR

Roger Horrocks was born October 4, 1844, and died October 28, 1932. He married Sarah Ann Taylor on Easter Sunday about 1867. She was born September 7, 1847, and died in 1931. They were the parents of 11 children: John James, Sarah Ann, Roger, Joseph, William, Thomas, Franklin, David, Alice (Mrs. J. M. Jones), Verna (Mrs. Frank Epperson, and Brigham.

Roger and Sarah Ann were born in Lankshire, England, where they received the gospel. He was a man of talents, especially in a musical way. There were three friends, Roger, Thomas Heels and Thomas Broadbent, all from England, all musically inclined, and a "full show" was given wherever they appeared together. As a young man, Roger worked at the Hatch Mill, Heber City. Later he was engaged in farming and he and his wife spent many hours at their loom, weaving beautiful rag carpets. Roger was eager to help others excel in music. Many friends were students in his organ and cello classes. For thirty years he was choir leader in Heber First Ward. He filled a mission to England at the age of 50.
